

The Parish of the MOST PRECIOUS BLOOD

a Catholic Parish in the Archdiocese of Southwark in the Pastoral Care of the Ordinariate of Our Lady of Walsingham

XVI SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME 21st July 2019

Welcome to Mass today!

If you are new to the area or this church, please make yourself known to one of the priests after Mass. There is tea and coffee available after the Solemn Mass in the Rectory, we hope you'll come through.

In the gospel reading today, we hear that Christ was welcomed by Mary and Martha in different ways. Martha was anxious to prepare a meal for him while Mary kept him company listening to all he had to say.

We need to listen to Christ with love. It is love that opens our hearts to his message when he comes to share his life with ours. Christ is our welcome guest.

Sunday School at the 11am Mass is for Children of Primary School age, who are on holiday now until the next term. Children are invited to sit near the front so they can see what's going on.

The Mass of Consecration pictures have now been uploaded to the parish website. Any more? www.preciousblood.org.uk/consecration

Blessed John Henry Newman's Canonisation will be 13th October. More info for events and tickets in Rome and in the UK at www.newmancanonisation.com

The new Archbishop will be installed on Thursday this week. Please keep Archbishop-elect John Wilson and Archbishop-emeritus Peter Smith in your prayers this week.

July, month of devotion to the Most Precious Blood. There are some devotional books at the back of Church:

Summer is here. How about some summer reading. FrC is always happy to suggest something to inform and enhance your Catholic Faith, or audiobooks or podcasts.

Going away during the summer? Don't forget to go to Mass each Sunday (yes, that's every Sunday!). Give the priest our greetings from MPB, if you say it's an Ordinariate Parish, he'll know. Bring back their newsletter.

Dress appropriately in Church. A gentle reminder that in the summer and hopefully, with some warmer weather, to wear appropriate clothes. A rule-of-thumb: knees to elbows!

Lost or lapsed? The summer is a time when it's easy to fall away. Keep an eye out for each other. If there used to be someone sitting near you who you haven't seen for a while, enquire after them. It's nice to be wanted and it's nice to be missed.

Are you at Secondary School? FrC has a idea for next year. Give him your name to find out more.

St James is celebrated on Thursday this week. Spanish Place have invited us to their celebratory Mass at 7pm with the Bp of East Anglia.

Archbishop
-emeritus Peter Smith

Archbishop
-elect John Wilson

Archbishop-elect Wilson's installation is on Thursday this week. He will be the eleventh Archbishop of Southwark

Auxiliary Bishop of Westminster since 2015 and previously a priest in the Diocese of Leeds, Archbishop-elect Wilson said of his appointment: "Someone once said if you want to make God laugh, tell Him your plans. In whatever way I might have imagined God's plan for my life to unfold, the news of my appointment by Pope Francis as the new Archbishop of Southwark came as a complete surprise."

"To say I am deeply humbled by my appointment, while absolutely true, hardly seems adequate. It is an immense privilege and I will do my very best to serve joyfully after the example of the Lord Jesus, the Good Shepherd. Aware of my unworthiness and limitations, and with more than a little trepidation, I am grateful to Pope Francis for entrusting me with this new mission in the service of the Lord and His people in the Archdiocese of Southwark. There is so much that is new to me and I know I have much to learn. I rely totally on the Holy Spirit to guide my new ministry of witnessing to the love of God for each person so that we might be evermore a Church of joyful missionary disciples, alive in Christ, our risen Saviour."

The Archbishop-elect said he was looking forward to sharing the Church's mission with Bishop Patrick Lynch and Bishop Paul Hendricks, and with the priests, deacons, religious and lay people of the Archdiocese.

"Together we step out into the future with confidence, trusting that the Lord is indeed with us. As we deepen our love for Him, we will continue to look outwards in the service of our brothers and sisters, not least the weakest and the poorest," he said.

Cardinal Vincent Nichols, said: "On behalf of the people, priests and religious of Westminster I assure Archbishop-elect Wilson of our whole-hearted support and prayers as he moves to take up his role as Archbishop of Southwark. We thank him most warmly for his service in Westminster both as an area bishop and a dedicated part of episcopal oversight of the Archdiocese, especially in education."

John Wilson was born on 4 July 1968 in Sheffield. He studied for a Bachelor of Arts degree in theology and religious studies at the University of Leeds and began formation for the priesthood for the Diocese of Leeds at the Venerable English College, Rome in 1989. He was ordained to the priesthood six years later, and in 1995 appointed Assistant Priest at St Joseph's, Pontefract, as well as hospital, hospice and school chaplain. He was appointed Assistant Priest at St Joseph's, Bradford in 1998, and also served as a school chaplain.

In 1999, he was appointed Lecturer in moral theology at St Cuthbert's Seminary, Ushaw College, Durham. He also completed a PhD at Durham University and latterly served as Vice Rector. In 2005, he was appointed Episcopal Vicar for Evangelisation in the Diocese of Leeds, a role he held until 2012. From 2008 to 2014 he was also sessional chaplain at HMP Leeds. In 2011 he was named a Chaplain to His Holiness by Pope Benedict XVI. During the vacancy of the see, he was elected Administrator of the Diocese of Leeds by the College of Consultors from September 2012 to November 2014. From 2015 to 2016 he served as Parish Priest of St Martin de Porres, Wakefield.

On 24 November 2015 he was appointed Auxiliary Bishop of Westminster and Titular Bishop of Lindisfarne by Pope Francis. He was ordained to the episcopate by Cardinal Vincent Nichols on 25 January 2016. He had pastoral care of the deaneries in the western area of the diocese. He was also Chair of the Education Commission and responsible for Liturgy, Art and Architecture, as well as the Historic Churches Commission.

“The story of Mary of Magdalene reminds us all of a fundamental truth...A disciple of Christ is one who, in the experience of human weakness, has had the humility to ask for his help...”
Benedict XVI

The Flowers in Church always look beautiful. They are looked after by a faithful team of ladies (yes, they are all ladies!). Would you like to buy some flowers for something special: your wedding or baptism anniversary, or in memory of a loved one - or just for the sake of it. £20 would get you a very nice display. See Maureen.
