MOST PRECIOUS BLOOD

a Catholic Parish in the Archdiocese of Southwark in the Pastoral Care of the Ordinariate of Our Lady of Walsingham

THIRD SUNDAY IN LENT

15th March 2020

In the gospel reading today, we hear that through Baptism Christ becomes within us a source of the living waters of grace. Through the Holy Spirit the love of God is poured into our hearts and our spiritual thirst is quenched. We really come alive. We become in our turn the wells of God's goodness at which people drink. Christ is the spring of life in us.

A Decree was issued by the Archbishop last week concerning Coronavirus. It is on the Church Door. In brief:

- ✘ The sign of peace is to be suspended
- ✘ Holy Communion only given with the Host
- ✘ Holy Communion by hand is encouraged
- ✘ Holy Water is to be removed
- ✘ A decision will be made nearer the time about the veneration on Good Friday

Gatherings are discouraged, so we will suspend all gatherings apart from worship. Mass will continue unless notified otherwise.

Did you bring your bible to Mass this week? If you still don't have a bible, Amazon will deliver! You will need it each Sunday at Mass in Lent.

The Study Course is suspended. We will resume in Eastertide.

The Way of the Cross, each Friday in Lent at 6.30pm (nb time)

Sunday School for children of Primary School age continues in the Long Room. Follow during the Kyrie.

The Year of the Word.

There are copies of St Matthew's Gospel at the back and a leaflet on how to read the bible.

Keir, a prospective student has been with us for a two weeks now. Thank you to those who have made him welcome. Invite him for a meal, or a cuppa coffee sometime.

St Joseph, is the husband of Mary, the foster father of Jesus and the patron of our School. His Solemnity is celebrated Thursday.

Everything we know about St Joseph comes from Scripture. He is sometimes called the Silent Witness, because we never hear him speak a single word!

We know he was a carpenter, a working man, because the sceptical Nazarenes ask about Jesus, "Is this not the carpenter's son?" (Mt 13:55). He wasn't rich because when he took Jesus to the Temple to be circumcised; and when he took Mary to be purified, he offered the sacrifice of two turtledoves or a pair of pigeons, which was only allowed only for those who could not afford a lamb. (Lk 2:24).

Despite his humble work and low means, Joseph came from a royal lineage. Luke and Matthew disagree some about the details of Joseph's genealogy but they both identify that he is descended from David, the greatest king of Israel; and the angel who first tells Joseph about Jesus greets him as "son of David," a royal title used also for Jesus.

He was a compassionate, caring man because when he discovered Mary was pregnant after they had been betrothed, he knew the child was not his but was as yet unaware that she was carrying the Son of God. He planned to divorce Mary according to the law but was concerned for her suffering and safety: if accused to adultery Mary could be stoned to death, so he decided to divorce her quietly so not expose her to shame or cruelty.

He was man of faith, obedient to whatever God asked of him without knowing the outcome. When the angel came to Joseph in a dream and told him the truth about the child Mary was carrying, Joseph immediately and without question or concern for gossip, took Mary as his wife. When the angel came again to tell him that his family was in danger, he immediately left everything he owned, all his family and friends, and fled to a strange country with his young wife and the baby. He waited in Egypt without question until the angel told him it was safe to go back.

He loved Jesus. His one concern was for the safety of this child entrusted to him. Not only did he leave his home to protect Jesus, but upon his return settled in the obscure town of Nazareth out of fear for his life. When Jesus stayed in the Temple we are told Joseph (along with Mary) searched with great anxiety for three days for him. He loved Jesus as his own son: over and over the people of Nazareth say of Jesus, "Is this not the son of Joseph?"

He respected God. He followed God's commands in handling the situation with Mary and going to Jerusalem to have Jesus circumcised and Mary purified after Jesus' birth. We are told that he took his family to Jerusalem every year for Passover, something that could not have been easy for a working man.

He is the patron of the dying because, assuming he died before Jesus' public life, he died with Jesus and Mary close to him, the way we all would like to leave this earth.

He is also patron of the universal Church, fathers, carpenters, and social justice.

There is more that we don't know than we do know: where and when he was born, how he spent his days, when and how he died and so on. But Scripture has left us with the most important knowledge: who he was -- "a righteous man". There is no better thing to be said about anyone, and it was said about St Joseph: 'being a man on honour'.

*Saint Joseph,
patron of the universal Church,
watch over the Church
as carefully as you watched over Jesus, help protect it and guide it
as you did with your adopted son.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.*

Burial in the Cathedral Crypt

It is with great sadness that I write about Archbishop Peter Smith, who died peacefully just before midnight on Friday 6th March.

Archbishop Peter had received the sacraments and prayers of the Church, and his former secretary, Fr Philip Glandfield, was with him when he died. I was able to visit him earlier that evening, and he was visited in hospital by family and friends, and by Cardinal Vincent Nichols.

Archbishop Peter's illness progressed very quickly following his diagnosis of cancer just a few weeks ago. He was a much loved brother, uncle, and friend; a priest of the Archdiocese of Southwark, Rector of St John's Seminary, Womersley, Bishop of East Anglia, Archbishop of Cardiff and Archbishop of Southwark until his retirement in July 2019. While Archbishop of Southwark, he also served from 2014-2015 as Apostolic Administrator of the Diocese of Arundel and Brighton.

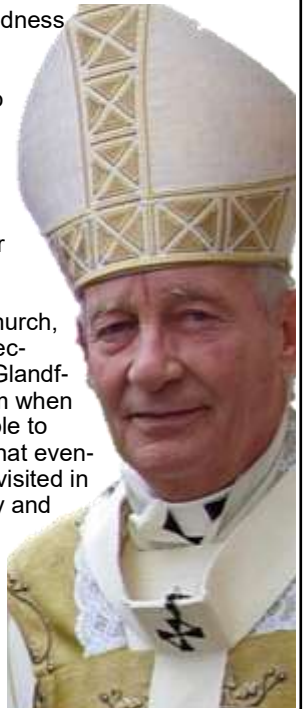

Our gift to Archbishop Peter now is to pray for the repose of his soul, and to remember prayerfully his family, friends and loved ones at their time of loss.

We now entrust our friend and brother to the Lord whom he served with such faithfulness, generosity and gentleness. May the saints and angels welcome him to paradise.

Yours devotedly in Christ

Archbishop of Southwark
