FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

21st April 2024

In the gospel reading today, we hear that Jesus Christ is the Good Shepherd. Christ the Good Shepherd lays down his life for us. This gives us some idea of how lavish God's love for us is when he allows us to be called his children. We do so only in the name of the Lord Jesus and we can be sure that through him one day we shall see God as he really is in himself.

Good Shepherd Sunday is today, the day we pray for vocations. To what life is God calling you? Married, religious, priestly, single?

Vidi Aquam, (Waters of Life), replaces the Rite of Confession at the Solemn Mass during Eastertide; confession is a renewal of our Baptism.

The Easter Lilies in Church were all in memory of loved ones who through the Resurrection of Jesus are in fact, alive! Their names are on the Altar.

Thank you for your generous Easter Offering. There are some envelopes at the back if you missed the chance.

Change a life

Every single person has a vocation, a calling, a dream held for us by God as to who God would have us be and what God would have us do with our lives. When we speak of “praying for vocations” it is somewhat inaccurate. Vocations are freely given by God. What we are really praying for is God’s help to find and follow our own particular call.

At this time in our part of the world, the call to a life of service and ministry in the Church is not very popular, for a variety of reasons. It’s not so much that God is not calling, so much as people might not be tuned in too well to listening! Another element is that whilst God does the calling, it is up to us to do the informing and inviting; that is telling people about religious life and priesthood – the fulfilment and joy it can bring – and actively invit-

“The world looks to the priest, because it looks to Jesus! No one can see Christ; but everyone sees the priest, and through him they wish to catch a glimpse of the Lord! Immense is the grandeur of the Lord! Immense is the grandeur and dignity of the priest!”

Rome, 13 October 1979

ing/encouraging them to think about it as a possible choice.

Imagine if, in every parish and faith community, people were encouraged to spend a few minutes discerning who in their midst might be a possible candidate for religious life/priesthood? Then, if they gently and sensitively shared the fruit of their reflection with that person, saying what they saw in the person and then left it for him/her to think and pray about it? What would happen? Only God knows! As well as full time ministry, every community has a need for willing people to serve as readers, ministers of the Eucharist, Mass servers, catechists or members of various committees. God’s Kingdom needs people willing to say yes and give their hands, feet and hearts.

God is saying, “Whom shall I send?”

What are you saying in reply?

Pope Francis Message for Vocations Sunday

The Virgin Mary, model of every vocation, did not fear to utter her “fiat” in response to the Lord’s call. She is at our side and she guides us. With the generous courage born of faith, Mary sang of the joy of leaving herself behind and entrusting to God the plans she had for her life. Let us turn to her, so that we may be completely open to what God has planned for each one of us, so that we can grow in the desire to go out with tender concern towards others. May the Virgin Mary protect and intercede for us all.

“Dear young people, do not bury your talents, the gifts that God has given you! Do not be afraid to dream of great things!”
