MOST HOLY TRINITY

12th June 2022

In the gospel reading today, we hear that the Spirit will lead us into all truth. The Spirit of truth existed before the earth came into being. Jesus promises us the Holy Spirit who will lead us into the fullness of truth provide we are prepared to pay the price. We persevere in hope knowing that the love of God has been poured out into our hearts by the Holy Spirit. The Spirit leads us into a deeper understanding of what the Gospel of Jesus Christ really means.

Trinity Sunday today, is the first free Sunday since Easter Sunday so we celebrate him who is Father, Son and Holy Spirit. We say that without words when we make the sign of the Cross - you can never do it too often and you can never wear it out.

Corpus et Sanguis Christi (the Body and Blood of Christ) is celebrated next week. A number of ours will be receiving the Body of Christ for the first time. Pray that they may always be grateful for this extraordinary gift of Jesus.

The Athanasian Creed

Whoever wills to be in a state of salvation, before all things it is necessary that he hold the catholic faith, which except everyone shall have kept whole and undefiled without doubt he will perish eternally.

Now the catholic faith is that we worship One God in Trinity and Trinity in Unity, neither confounding the Persons nor dividing the substance. For there is one Person of the Father, another of the Son, another of the Holy Spirit. But the Godhead of the Father, of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, is One, the Glory equal, the Majesty coeternal.

Such as the Father is, such is the Son, and such is the Holy Spirit; the Father uncreated, the Son uncreated, and the Holy Spirit uncreated; the Father infinite, the Son infinite, and the Holy Spirit infinite; the Father eternal, the Son eternal, and the Holy Spirit eternal. And yet not three eternals but one eternal, as also not three infinities, nor three uncreated, but one uncreated, and one infinite. So, likewise, the Father is almighty, the Son almighty, and the Holy Spirit almighty; and yet not three almighties but one almighty.

So the Father is God, the Son God, and the Holy Spirit God; and yet not three Gods but one God. So the Father is Lord, the Son Lord, and the Holy Spirit Lord; and yet not three Lords but one Lord. For like as we are compelled by Christian truth to acknowledge every Person by Himself to be both God and Lord; so are we forbidden by the catholic religion to say, there be three Gods or three Lords.

The Father is made of none, neither created nor begotten. The Son is of the Father alone, not made nor created but begotten. The Holy Spirit is of the Father and the Son, not made nor created nor begotten but proceeding. So there is one Father not three Fathers, one Son not three Sons, and Holy Spirit not three Holy Spirits. And in this Trinity there is nothing before or after, nothing greater or less, but the whole three Persons are coeternal together and coequal.

So that in all things, as is aforesaid, the trinity in Unity and the Unity in Trinity is to be worshipped. He therefore who wills to be in a state of salvation, let him think thus of the Trinity.

But it is necessary to eternal salvation that he also believe faithfully the Incarnation of our Lord Jesus Christ. The right faith therefore is that we believe and confess that our Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of God, is God and Man.

He is God of the substance of the Father begotten before the worlds, and He is man of the substance of His mother born in the world; perfect God, perfect man subsisting of a reasoning soul and human flesh; equal to the Father as touching His Godhead, inferior to the Father as touching His Manhood.

Who although He be God and Man yet He is not two but one Christ; one however not by conversion of the Godhead in the flesh, but by taking of the Manhood in God; one altogether not by confusion of substance but by unity of Person. For as the reasoning soul and flesh is one man, so God and Man is one Christ.

Who suffered for our salvation, descended into hell, rose again from the dead, ascended into heaven, sits at the right hand of the Father, from whence He shall come to judge the living and the dead. At whose coming all men shall rise again with their bodies and shall give account for their own works. And they that have done good shall go into life eternal, and they who indeed have done evil into eternal fire.

This is the catholic faith, which except a man shall have believed faithfully and firmly he cannot be in a state of salvation.

Nigeria Church attack: When suffering is overlooked

The terrible massacre carried out on last Sunday on a Catholic church in Nigeria has received very little coverage in the global mass media, which reveals the existence of a "second-class suffering" that induces further suffering and is accompanied by a sense of feeling forgotten due to seeing pain as not deserving worldwide attention. Lord have mercy

Absent Friend. These cards from the Archbishop are now available for you to take to those not at Mass to invite them to come. You will know one you might know more.
