THE MONTH OF THE IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY

August 2026

The month of August is dedicated to The Immaculate Heart of Mary and falls within Ordinary Time, which is represented by the liturgical colour green. Mary is symbol of hope as in the colour of sprouting seeds and invites the faithful of the hope of eternal life harvest in because Mary is the mediator of all Graces.. Mary pray for us who have recourse to thee.

Sunday Mass continues throughout August at 9.30am & 11am.

The weekday Mass is suspended during August and will return in September. Keep an eye on the parish website.

A summer schedule across the Archdiocese for Mass times has begun. Check times.

Vacation or staycation during the summer, don't forget to go to Mass each Sunday. Give the priest our greetings from MPB, if you say it's an Ordinariate Parish, he'll know. Bring back their newsletter.

Bless you holiday home. To help guarantee a restful time, invite the angles to watch over your sleeping by blessing your holiday accommodation. And pray as a family once in the car before a long journey. Oh, and give thanks on your return.

Dress appropriately in Church. A gentle reminder that in the summer and in hopefully warmer weather, to wear appropriate clothes. A rule-of-thumb: knees to elbows!

Summer reading; summer watching - some ideas of some Catholic themed entertainment this summer. See overleaf.

The Angelus Bell rings three times each day at 9am 12noon and 6pm as a reminder of the Annunciation – and a call to thank God for the Incarnation: for coming in Jesus. Do you know it by heart?

Welcome to visitors who are in London this week for work or holiday, Please keep us in in your prayers now and again.

Post Mass Quiet is an important part of Mass. Please maintain a prayerful space after Mass in Church. Chat over coffee in the Long Room, or on the piazza.

Lost or lapsed? The summer is a time when it's easy to fall away. Keep an eye out for each other. If there used to be someone sitting near you who you haven't seen for a while, give then a call. It's nice to be missed.

March for Life - 5th September. As well as the march, there are lots of presentations and stands in the morning. Keep the day free for this important event protecting those who need protecting. marchforlife.co.uk

No Coins. The finance office have said paying in coins slows down banking. So, no copper or silver please.

Scam warning. Sophisticated scams using AI are using clergy creations in WhatsApp to ask for money. Only give via the system you already know.

St John Henry Newman is out of quarantine and in the country (the statue that is). Still time for a contribution/ransom.

The Age of Innocence (1993)
Here Scorcese transforms Edith Wharton's satire on New York during the Gilded Age into a compassionate tale of love and sacrifice. Stars Daniel Day-Lewis & Michelle Pfeiffer.

Angels with Dirty Faces (1938)
Good gangster Cagney, at the request of his old pal, the priest Pat O'Brien, pretends he's yellow so as to warn the Dead End Kids against a macho life of crime.

The Assisi Underground (1984)
Father Ruffino (Ben Cross), one of the "Righteous Gentiles," shelters Italian Jews and transports them. This is a true story.

Au Revoir, Les Enfants (1987)
Tells the story of several Jewish boys being hidden in a French Catholic boarding school during World War II. Not sentimental!

Babette's Feast (1987)
A delightful story of two Danish spinsters suspicions of their hired cook who prepares a sumptuous banquet. The film leads into a eucharistic celebration, consisting of an enormous sacrifice for those unworthy of the price.

Bachelor Mother (1939)
A '30s comedy with Ginger Rogers mistaken as the mother of an abandoned baby and accepts this role in order to keep her job. David Niven, playboy heir to the department store where Ginger works, begins by preaching to the "fallen" Ginger, only later to assume the fatherhood of the child.

Bicycle Thieves (1947)
A great "Neo-realist" films, it tells the all-too-human story of a family, who suffer unemployment in post-war Italy. A simple story movingly told that it evokes sympathy that the Church and our Lord desire.

Blue (1992)
Directed by Krzysztof Kieslowski: This film is part of a trilogy, the other two being White and Red. Beautifully photographed and supremely intelligent, it tells of a woman (Juliette Binoche) who, after losing her husband and child, attempts to withdraw from life. But suffering and truth bring her back, with greater understanding, to a more meaningful existence.

Bless This House
AND ALL WHO ENTER

Blessing a hotel room or holiday home

Almighty God, I ask you to send your angels to be with me/us in this place, and protect me/us from all assaults of the Evil one. Please forgive any wrong that has been perpetuated in this room, and grant those who offend you the grace of conversion. Dispel the powers of darkness which may be in this room and protect me/us this night, and those who will sleep here in the forthcoming nights. Jesus I trust in You!.

✠ Lord, bless us we pray. May your holy angels dwell with us to keep us in peace, and may your blessings be upon us always. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
